2016-2017 Nursing Learning Community (NLC)
Application Questions

The Living-Learning Communities (LLC) application opens in February. We recommend preparing your answers to the questions below before logging in to submit your NLC application.

By submitting your NLC application, you pledge that, in accordance with Florida State University's Academic Honor System, your application essays are your own work.

Please answer each question and limit your entire submission to fewer than 3800 characters or 650 words. Suggested word limits are provided beside each question only as a guideline.

1. Please provide an email address and a phone number where we can best reach you in these situations:
   - Based on this written application, some applicants to the Social Justice or WIMSE LLCs will be invited to participate in a phone interview with an LLC student or staff member; final acceptance into WIMSE or SoJust is based on both the written application and the interview. If you are chosen for an interview, we will notify you by email.
   - If you are selected as an alternate for any LLC, we may need to contact you very quickly by email or phone when a space becomes available. If you are invited by email or phone, you must accept promptly or forfeit your invitation.

2. Briefly describe your interest in the theme of this community. What experiences have led to your interest? (100 to 150 words)

3. Describe an experience that greatly influenced you or expanded your understanding of the world around you. This experience could be a news story, a service experience, a topic you explored for reasons other than schoolwork, a job, etc. Please choose an experience that was not required to earn a grade. (150 to 200 words)

4. How will your participation in your living-learning community help you achieve your personal, academic or career goals? (100 to 150 words)

5. What will you contribute to your living-learning community? Consider the special interests, background or skills you can share and the characteristics that make you unique. (100 to 150 words)
