TITLE: ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

POLICY: In accordance with University policy, any student in need of specific services and reasonable accommodations should contact the Student Disability Resource Center (SDRC). Persons with cognitive disabilities must be evaluated by this office for clearance before special accommodations can be provided. Students must inform the lead teacher of each course and work out the necessary details with each instructor.

RATIONALE: The Florida State University adheres to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) in prohibiting discrimination against any qualified person with a disability.

PROCEDURE: Students with disabilities needing academic accommodations should:

1. Register and provide documentation to the Student Disability Resource Center (SDRC).
2. Bring a letter to the instructor from the SDRC indicating your need academic accommodations. This should be done within the first week of class.
3. Keep the instructor informed regarding matters of concern.
