

2016-2017 Agreement, Nursing Learning Community

In accordance with Florida State University's Academic Honor System, I pledge that my responses to the written portion of my application are my own work.

I understand that, if I am accepted as a member of the Nursing Learning Community at Wildwood Hall, I will have certain responsibilities and obligations. Among these are the following:

RESPONSIBILITIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF ALL LIVING-LEARNING COMMUNITY MEMBERS:

1. I will respect and support others in the program as peers and friends as best I can.
2. I will be an active participant in the living-learning community (LLC). This includes enrolling in, attending and satisfactorily completing LLC-exclusive sections of all required fall and/or spring LLC courses; participating in meetings scheduled by the faculty director; being willing to help plan activities co-sponsored by students and LLC staff; and attending the various special events and/or presentations arranged each year for students in the program.
3. I will give priority to LLC activities over the activities of other student organizations such as sororities, fraternities and clubs. If I plan to participate in sorority recruitment, I understand that, while LLC faculty and staff work with Greek Life staff to minimize any conflicts between recruitment activities and mandatory LLC events, it is ultimately my responsibility to manage my involvement in both of these activities effectively by understanding exactly what each one requires of me and making informed commitments.
4. I will abide by the terms specified in the Guide to Residence Living and the Student Code of Conduct. I will maintain an atmosphere conducive to study and observe posted policies related to quiet hours and guests. I understand that behavioral issues may be communicated between residence life staff and LLC staff so that both parties can assist in creating a healthy learning environment for all students. I understand that if I am reassigned from the residence hall, whether in response to behavioral issues or at my own request, I will be removed from the LLC and my LLC courses.
5. I understand that participation in the program and access to in-house courses are limited to students who receive and accept invitations to the LLC and who live in LLC space in the designated residence hall for the entire academic year. I understand that, if I accept an invitation to this community, I will not be able to participate in any other LLC.
6. If I am eligible for the University Honors Program, I understand that I may participate fully in Honors Program activities while a resident participant in any LLC, but that no student may participate in any LLC while living in Honors housing. (Honors Housing at Florida State University is not considered an LLC.)
7. I understand that my roommate must also be selected for and participate in the LLC. (Exception: Occasionally, LLC participants do not fill all spaces designated for the program, in which case vacant LLC spaces may be assigned to non-participants as determined by University Housing. Roommate requests matching LLC participants with non-participants are not considered.)

ADDITIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES AND OBLIGATIONS OF NURSING LEARNING COMMUNITY RESIDENTS:

I agree to support the overall goal of the Nursing Learning Community: to provide an atmosphere that encourages the development of the professionalism associated with the career of nursing.

REQUIRED COURSES

I will enroll in the required colloquium course, HUM1921, each semester.

As a part of my formal application to become a member of the Nursing Learning Community at Wildwood Hall, I agree to comply with each of the requirements listed above. I understand that failure to abide by the terms of this agreement may result in reassignment from Wildwood Hall to another available space within University Housing.
